RETALIATORY LAWS: A.R.S. § 20-230, 20-1566(C) and A.A.C. R 20-6-205

All taxes, fees, fines, penalties and assessments, excluding ad valorem taxes on real or personal property and guaranty fund assessments, are retaliated in the aggregate (A.R.S. § 20-230) except upon title insurers, whose retaliation is based on a comparison of the premium tax an Arizona insurer would pay in the foreign insurer's domicile less the state income tax the foreign insurer paid in Arizona. A.R.S. § 20-1566(C).

Beginning January 1, 2016, ARS § 20-230 excludes from retaliation obligations insurers domiciled in states that do not impose retaliation (Hawaii) and insurers domiciled where laws exempt Arizona insurers from retaliation on a reciprocal basis, which as of July 2015 we believe to include Massachusetts (awaiting confirmation), Minnesota, New York (awaiting confirmation) and Rhode Island, and which could include Texas if approved by the Texas Comptroller.

As part of the retaliation calculation, an insurer (other than a title insurer) domiciled in a state that permits political subdivisions of the state to levy taxes, fees, assessments or other material obligations against Arizona insurers must multiply the amount of its Arizona premiums that would be taxed under the laws of the insurer's domicile times the applicable “addition to the rate of tax,” accessible from the Department's “Taxes” web page (<https://insurance.az.gov/insurers/taxes>). A.A.C. R20-6-205.F.
